

SWETSwise

Corporate Edition

Reduce costs. Save time. Remove duplication

SwetsWise Corporate Edition is the most comprehensive information management and procurement service available. By making the process of finding, ordering and managing subscriptions and acquired content easier to handle, SwetsWise Corporate Edition will help you to satisfy your users' content needs in the most cost-effective manner for your organization.

Swets understands the essential role you play in your organization's cost reduction efforts. However, if many people are ordering print or electronic content, including eBooks without a process in place to manage them efficiently this can result in the accumulation of unnecessary costs, with valuable time and effort being wasted on all levels.

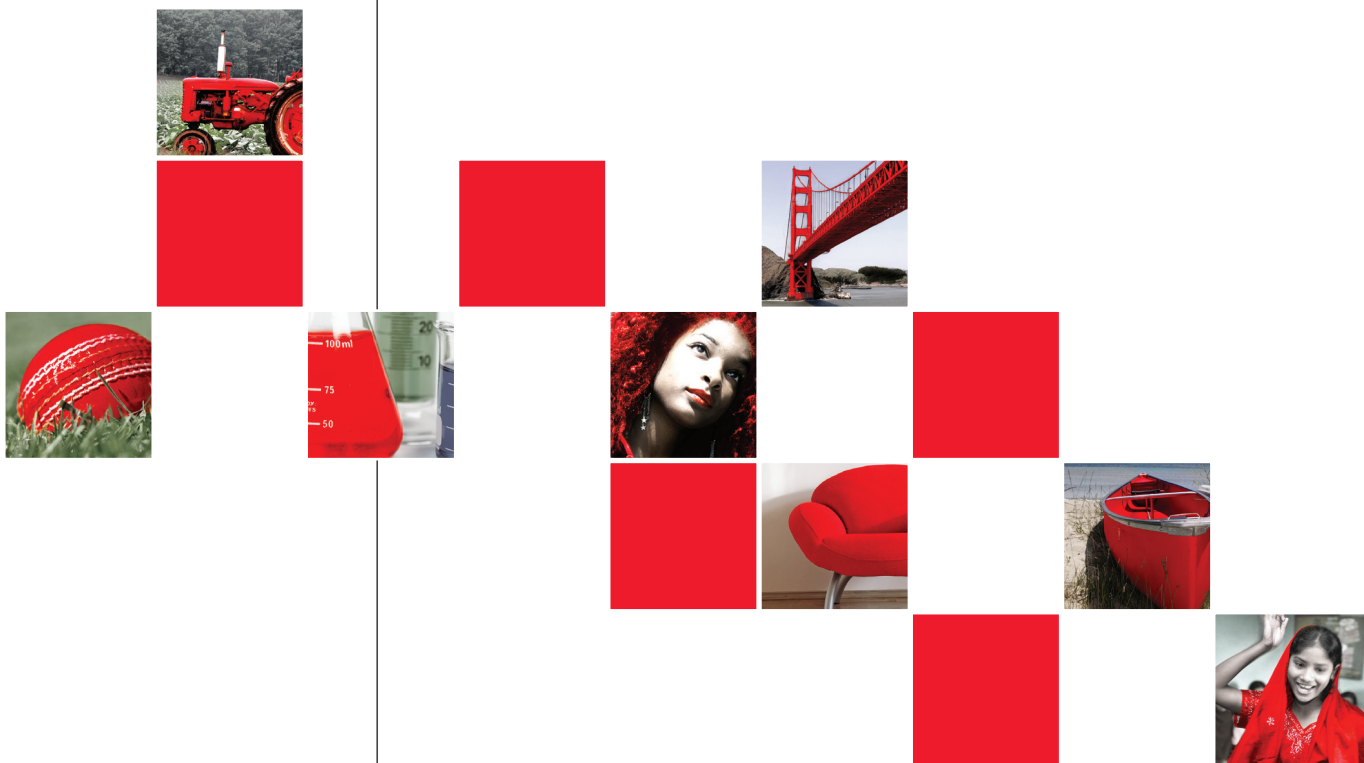

Maintaining relationships with thousands of publishers for thousands of different publications is complex and takes users away from their primary tasks. We can help. SwetsWise Corporate Edition can become an integral part of your organization's cost reduction program, providing the essential interaction with publishers needed to ensure the timely delivery of print or electronic content, in any format your users require.

Optimize your spend

- Remove unnecessary duplication and 'rogue' spending
- Choose to include an approval cycle on purchases
- Reduce your spend on content

Save time

- Manage thousands of publications from one interface
- Receive fewer invoices
- Find and order content quicker
- Manage existing subscriptions more easily

All in one online purchasing environment!

Our comprehensive SwetsWise portfolio of services integrates all the tools you need to acquire, access, manage, distribute and evaluate your content. SwetsWise Corporate Edition, the core element of this portfolio, provides a user-friendly, web-based interface that enables de-centralized purchasing across your entire organization. SwetsWise Corporate Edition can also be easily integrated into an existing e-procurement environment.

SwetsWise Corporate Edition puts a complete overview of your organization's information purchases at your fingertips and fully automates approval processes. As a result, you will gain greater control over your company's content spend and unparalleled knowledge of how that content is being used and distributed throughout your organization.

How does SwetsWise Corporate Edition work?

It could not be easier. After your SwetsWise Corporate Edition account is set-up, you simply provide us with a list of your current subscriptions and we will renew them. From this single interface you will be able to oversee the purchasing and claiming activity on all of your organization's publications.

Extensive order functionality with high level of control

- Rapidly growing catalog of more than 300,000 publications
- Catalog is searchable using basic and advanced search functionalities
- Easy to select items from search results
- Clear pricing information
- Electronic Shopping Cart for easy ordering

What does SwetsWise Corporate Edition include?

- Fully customizable interface
- Payments via Invoice, Credit Card or Purchase Cards
- Optional integration with e-procurement systems (eg. Ariba, SAP)
- Two-level approval cycle for orders and renewals
- Comprehensive management reports
- Single Sign On (SSO) authentication – an option that provides one password for your entire organization

SwetsWise Corporate Edition enables you to designate who, within your organization, is authorized to purchase information, on budgetary and department levels. As a result, your organization will minimize the duplication of orders which reduces the amount of time, effort and money being wasted. SwetsWise Corporate Edition will help you to evaluate the titles you have and how they are being used, making the whole process of managing print and electronic publications, including eBooks easier to handle and more cost-effective.

Contact us to learn more

Learn more today about SwetsWise Corporate Edition and how it can help you to optimize your organization's ROI on information. To order SwetsWise Corporate Edition or to arrange a full demonstration of the service, please contact your local Swets representative or visit www.swets.com/swetswise

